

Data Science Career Track

Capstone: Presentation Rubric

Criteria	Meets Expectations
Completion	• Student has presented a slide deck that matches the project instructions • The slide deck has at least 10 slides and no more than 20 slides
Process & Understanding	• Presentation communicates the story of the work the student has done for their guided capstone project • The content of the presentation highlights key information about the student's analysis and recommendations
Presentation	• The submission is complete and uploaded to a project Github repository • Presentation is polished and it is clear that the student has taken the time to prepare and practice • Student uses professional language and has put in the effort to look presentable • Presentation is no longer than 20 minutes (as the last 10 minutes of the 30-minute call will be used to answer questions, discuss the presentation, and get feedback)